Increase in circulation of Currency Notes

*110. SHRI J". P. JAVALI: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that in the last ten years circulation of currency notes has increased considerably;

(b) if so, what is the percentage increase from 1980 to 1990; and

(c) whether such high increase in circulation of notes has created problems of storage in banks?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI YASHWANT SINHA): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The volume of currency notes in circulation has increased considerably during the 10 years period 1980—1990. The total volume of notes has increased from 7980 million pieces in 1980 (March end) to about 20656 million pieces in 1990 (March end), representing a percentage increase in the volume of currency notes during the last 10 years of about 159 per cent.

(c) Because of accumulation of lower denomination notes, some currency chests maintaining branches of Public Sector Banks are experiencing storage problems.
